

Kid Friendly Websites

Christian Websites

1. Bibleapp.com/kids is a premier Christian app for children. We highly recommend this website and app for use in family Bible study and in your child's personal Bible study time.
2. Weavefamily.org is a family centered website for parents looking for activities and devotions that will help focus their family on God's story and purpose for living.
3. Answersingenesis.org/kids offers a multitude of videos and activities that help children understand God as our creator. Great integration of the natural sciences and scripture in exploring the issue of creation and evolution.
4. Adventurebible.com by Harper Collins Publishers has children's games and Bible activities based on the popular Adventure Bible.
5. Thebeginnerbible.com has games and stories for our younger children by ZonderKidz.
6. <https://us-en.superbook.cbn.com/> is the Children's site for Christian Broadcasting Network. Online games and episodes of SuperBook series.
7. <https://kidscorner.reframedia.com/> provides fun activities and Bible-based stories
8. <https://watch.yippee.tv/> is a subscription site that has all the VeggieTale videos and more for $7.99 month.
9. <https://kidsministry.lifeway.com/2020/03/13/lifeway-kids-at-home/> Lifeway is providing LifeWay Kids at Home and LifeWay Preschool at Home Digital Pass experiences. Materials include a Bible Story video, Life Application video, a kids connection video, a missions video and gospel presentation resources. New sessions will be updated weekly at midnight on Thursday nights so that families can have fresh content every weekend.

Other Fun Free Websites for Kids

1. Kids.nationalgeographic.com is a fun site with loads of games, nature videos
2. Scholastic.com/learnathome offers free age specific learning materials online
3. Pbskids.org has games and videos based on popular shows and offers daily tips and activities for children to keep children learning at home.
4. Highlightskids.com is full of videos, games, jokes, and of course hidden pictures.
5. Almanac.com/kids offers interesting information on weather, animals, history, inventions and more in a fun kid-friendly format.
6. Coolmathgames.com has math-based games for different ages.
7. Disneyjunior.disney.com has high quality games, puzzles and online coloring based on their movies and TV shows.
8. Circletimefun.com gives parents learning experiences with their children both live and recorded. You choose a session, sign up and log on. Ages 6 and under.
9. Gonoodle.com will get your kids up and moving with exercise and fun dance moves.
10. Scratchjr.org teaches young children (5-7) how to code making their own interactive games and stories.
11. Dulingo.com teaches kids a new language using short 5-10 minute interactive sessions.
12. Mathgames.com offers a variety of creative age-graded math skill games.
13. Mysteryscience.com has a variety of activities and lessons 5-90 minute in length.
14. Beanstalk.com is a cute preschool website offering free online learning for parents with their Pre-K children throughout the COVID-19 outbreak.