BEAVERTON, Oregon - The Beaverton Community Band (Martin Sobelman, Conductor) is pleased beyond measure to be able to hold its Fall Concert in-person on Sunday, November 28, 2021. Over 18 months has passed since we last were able to enjoy performing in front of a live audience. The selections for the concert will help us, during this time of COVID-19, celebrate a return to music making, to sharing our art with others, and to being together again.

The theme for the Fall concert is “Exuberance, Joy, and Home,” featuring the music of Aaron Copland, David Maslanka, Adrian Hallam, Omar Thomas, Leonard Bernstein, Jay Dawson, and Randall Standridge.

The 700 seat venue provides for ample seating for attendees to distance themselves in the Sanctuary. Proof of vaccination and/or a negative COVID-19 test within 72 hours will be required for admission, and social distancing protocols and masking will be observed by members and the audience.

Date: Sunday, November 28th, 3:00 P.M. until 5:00 P.M.

Location: The Village Church, 330 SW Murray Boulevard, Beaverton, OR

Admission: Free and donations will be accepted to help defray performance costs.

Parking: Free. Shuttle Bus stop at the lobby door.

The Beaverton Community Band has performed for the Beaverton community for over 40 years. The Fall Concert is the first concert of the band's 2021-22 season, and will be followed by a Winter Concert on March 20, 2022 at 3:00 P.M. and a Spring Concert on June 26, 2022 at 3:00 P.M. (COVID protocols allowing).
