Bess Lindahl will moderate a panel of eleven at 11:00
of representatives from the Portland Elder Care Council.

This is a non-profit group of volunteers who provide free education and referral services to seniors, their families, and caregivers. This organization loves to help the community through FREE webinars and in-person events. They believe individuals, families, and the community can increase the quality of care, understand resources, and pave the way to a better life through education and knowledge.

Raffles and prizes throughout the event
